Good afternoon Henrienne,

I apologize that there is a conflict, and we will make sure to check the election calendar for future meetings to see if we can make adjustments. Please know the PDC is welcoming written comments on the text up until May 31, 2021. You can find the Notices of Negotiated Rulemaking and rulemaking text are available on the PDC website:

<https://pdc.idaho.gov/negotiated-rulemaking-2021/> . After this meeting, and comment period, there will be at least one (1) future public hearing, and we look forward to your participation in that meeting. Tammy Zokan manages the rule making process, and asked me to forward you her cell number if you have any questions, 208-921-2245. She is also copied on this email if you would like to reach out that way.

On an unrelated note, I met very briefly with Melody last week on the financial assistance application, and she asked that we meet when you were back in the office. Do you have time this week to review your application via a zoom meeting? It is my hope that if we can meet before it is submitted, on or before May 17, 2021, we can avoid the application being rejected and bouncing back on a technicality. If you can send me a few times, I can find one that works with our calendars, and send a zoom invite out.

I appreciate your time, and if you need anything from us, please let me know.

Thank you,
Jennifer

Hi,

Just a suggestion for the future. Try to avoid Election Days when scheduling meetings. Clerks run our elections, and it's hard to multitask two very important things in one day.

Henrienne
